DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-7, 11-17, 20, 21 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Golden (US Patent 6,575,509).

Regarding claims 1, 11, 21 and 23, Golden discloses a cargo support comprising at least a window area (10) frame element (12) and a mounting (18', 18'') for attachment of the frame element (16) at a lower area of a rear window of a motor vehicle (Figs. 5 and 6), said mounting enabling the frame element (16) to be move between a first mounting position (Fig. 1) at least partially framing the rear window of the motor vehicle and a second mounting position (Figs. 2-8) in which the frame is essentially horizontal for supporting a cargo (Fig. 4a).

Regarding claims 2 and 12, Golden discloses the cargo support as claimed in claim 1, wherein the frame element (16) is has a U or bow shape (Figs. 3 and 6-8).

Regarding claims 3 and 13, Golden discloses the cargo support as claimed in claim 2, wherein the mounting (18) is a pivotal mounting (Fig. 2) with hinges for attachment on the vehicle (inherent).

Regarding claims 4 and 14, Golden discloses the cargo support as claimed in claim 2, wherein the frame element (16) is lockable (column 3, line 52) on the vehicle in the first mounting position (Fig. 1).

Regarding claims 5 and 15, Golden discloses the cargo support as claimed in claim 2, wherein the frame element is lockable (column 3, line 52) on the vehicle in the second mounting position.

Regarding claims 6 and 16, Golden discloses the cargo support as claimed in claim 2, wherein mounting comprises a slide mount (Fig. 7 and 8) for enabling the frame element (16) to be pushed into the vehicle.

Regarding claims 7 and 17, Golden discloses the cargo support as claimed in claim 1, wherein the frame element (16) is adapted for being integrated into a body of the vehicle (Fig. 1) in the first mounting position.

Regarding claim 20, Golden discloses the motor vehicle as claimed in claim 11, wherein frame element (16) is adapted to coact with an upper surface of a bumper on the vehicle body for supporting the cargo (Fig. 4).

3. Claims 1, 11, 18 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Storck et al. (US Patent 5,934,727).

Art Unit: 3612

Regarding claims 1 and 11, Storck et al. disclose a cargo support comprising at least a window area (28) frame element (30) and a mounting (23) for attachment of the frame element (30) at a lower area of a rear window of a motor vehicle (Fig. 3), said mounting (23) enabling the frame element (30) to be move between a first mounting position (Fig. 1) at least partially framing the rear window of the motor vehicle and a second mounting position (Fig. 3) in which the frame is essentially horizontal for supporting a cargo.

Regarding claim 18, Storck et al. disclose a motor vehicle as claimed in claim 11, further comprising a second frame element (30) and a second frame mounting (23) for attachment of the second frame on the vehicle body for joint use with the window area frame.

Regarding claim 19, Storck et al. disclose a motor vehicle as claimed in claim 11, wherein mounting for the second frame element enables the second frame element to have a first mounting position folded onto (Fig. 1) or recessed into the vehicle.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 8, 9, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Storck et al.

Storck et al. disclose the cargo support of claim 1. Storck et al. also disclose a second frame element and a second mounting for attachment of the second frame on the vehicle for joint use with the window area frame element. Storck et al. do not disclose that the frames have a U-shape. The Examiner takes Official Notice that it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to make the frame of the panel (30) of a U-shape. The motivation would have been to provide the panel (30) with rigidity so that the panel could support a load placed thereon. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to make the cargo support of claims 8, 9 and 10.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 22, 24 and 25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art discloses other frame means for vehicles.
